PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

With gratefulness and joy we celebrate that Your grace, O God, is sufficient for all our needs and available to us in all the reaches of our lives. If we live with the good fortune of life, You are there, and if we suffer and know anguish, You are there. Whether in the heights of happiness or in the depths of despair, whether at the end of the day or at the morning light, in youth or age, in all the seasons of our existence, we can be confident that Your spirit leads us and Your grace accepts us, whatever we have been and wherever we are.

For all these great gifts, O God, we offer our praise and thanksgiving. Amen.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY FROM THE FATHERHOOD PROMOTION TASK FORCE

(Mr. PITTS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, as the co-chair of the Task Force on Fatherhood Promotion, I rise today to discuss the importance of a faithful father.

With Father's Day this Sunday, it is vital that we pause to thank the men across this country who have given time to their children, love them, discipline them and show their commitment to keeping a family together.

When more than 50 percent of all adults agree that fathers today spend less time with their children than their own fathers did with them, this should cause us to pause. We must consider the reality that only if we spend time with our kids now will they desire time with us later.

As Father's Day comes and goes again, we should resolve that the most important relationship we will ever cultivate will not be here in the halls of Congress, or over dinner downtown, or at a campaign fund-raiser, but will be the ones that develop in our own homes.

To all those fathers who are working to be good dads:

Keep up the valuable work that you are doing. Society and, most importantly, your own kids will say, "Thank you."
